USPA NEWS - Memorandum of Understanding with the Commissioner of the Parliament of Ukraine for Human Rights – Ombudsman of Ukraine

In Kyiv, the capital of Ukraine, on November 1, 2024, Prof.H.C Rafal Marcin Wasik, Secretary General of the Transnational Intergovernmental Foundation International Human Rights Commission - IHRC, signed a Memorandum of Understanding with the Commissioner of the Parliament of Ukraine for Human Rights represented by the Head of the Secretariat Mr. Ivan Verveiko. The signing of this Memorandum of Understanding is a key milestone in the development of international relations between institutions dealing with the protection of human rights.

During the signing ceremony, Prof. h.c. Rafal Marcin Wasik, who is a co-author of the book New Economy System 3.0: Sustainable Macroeconomics with Green Rendite by Platzer & Rothschild, donated a copy of this work to the National Library of the Ukrainian Ombudsman. This book, which delves into sustainable economic models and the potential of "green rendite," is a valuable addition to the Ombudsman's knowledge resources, symbolizing a shared commitment to sustainability in tandem with human rights protections.

The signed Memorandum establishes a close partnership in the field of human rights protection, in particular with regard to Ukrainian citizens. It also creates a platform for the exchange of information and the organization of joint international projects. The agreement covers many areas, including monitoring human rights throughout Ukraine, including in the territories temporarily controlled by foreign states. It also includes the official representation of the Ombudsman of Ukraine in Africa and Asia, as well as support for Ukrainian citizens living abroad.

The cooperation of the Transnational Intergovernmental Foundation International Human Rights Commission and the Commissioner of the Parliament of Ukraine for Human Rights aims to build modern structures for the protection of human rights and improve public safety. Of particular importance is the fight against human trafficking and the promotion of the physical and psychological safety of children, adolescents and women.

"The signing of this Memorandum is an extremely important step towards strengthening the protection of human rights in Ukraine and in the countries where our organization is represented."

emphasised Prof.H.C Rafal Marcin Wasik, IHRC Secretary General.
